

DOCUMENT #7: Mrs. S. Pellan

(Demonstrating amazing courage, this letter was sent to the chief of the Political Police)

December 9, 1991

I send you back your document and because I proclaim not having been a victim of any misconduct, it is but obvious that I categorically refuse to give in to your demand to sue Philip Savage.

I insist to bring forth some fuller information:

Although formerly I always had recourse to official medicine, since I was told by the doctors themselves that the condition of my nephew was hopeless and that he was condemned to death (or with a miracle to an artificial respirator for the rest of his life), and since I had been directly apprised of the true, fantastic, and beneficial results of Philip Savage's Practice, I applied for his cares.

Eight days after I wrote to him, Bernard was saved. After that, is there any need to add anything?! ¹

His collaborators always gave me the impression of being as honest as Philip Savage himself. Not only did he refuse the money I eagerly sent to him, but due to the most precarious terminal nature of my nephew's case, without even telling me, he decided that my check would not be cashed unless Bernard was rescued!

He constantly refused the money of other patients I know and, although he was solicited by innumerable people, he also denied himself the right to intervene when he deemed that his cares could not be useful.

Never did Philip Savage give me the impression that he could want to replace the doctor. All to the contrary, he always proclaimed that his Practice and Medicine were complementary and mutually beneficial for the patient himself.

How can you wish to suppress such a help?

Why do you not want to let us, suffering people, have this type of hope?

I affirm with the highest possible solemnity that I have said only the very Truth.

DOCUMENT #5: Mrs. S. Pellan

(To Philip Savage's Support Committee)

I applied for the intervention of Philip Savage in November of 1990 on behalf of my godson and nephew, B. Ferchaud. I will be as specific as possible:

In October of 1988, Bernard was the victim of a terrible agricultural accident — he had been run over by a tractor. His cervical vertebrae were broken. He was totally paralyzed, but his brain was intact.

He remained nine months in the hospital and one year in a rehabilitation clinic where he was trained to utilize his electric wheelchair before being sent back home in July of 1990.

However, in October 1990, the health condition of my nephew suddenly collapsed: One of his lungs no longer functioned and the X-rays documented that his diaphragm was paralyzed. His condition then worsened: His blood pressure was extremely low and he entered into a deep coma.

At this very time, I was informed of the existence of the Healing Practice of Philip Savage. I wrote to him and sent him a photograph of Bernard who, in the next following days, was to reach the ultimate hopeless terminal phase.

Therefore, I, myself, telephoned to one of Philip Savage's collaborators and I begged him for Philip Savage's immediate intervention.

Philip Savage, having accepted this "impossible rescuing," after his "remote treatment" the healing is bewildering and immediate: My nephew instantly came out of his coma. New X-ray examinations were immediately realized: His diaphragm was functioning again.

The doctors were so puzzled by such an absolute impossibility that they then declared that they must have misinterpreted all the former examinations!

(To Philip Savage's Family)

I hope that this letter will help you to overcome the unbearable nightmare that you must be living now. I was unsuccessful in trying to reach Philip Savage's collaborators as I used to do, when I was suddenly apprised by the press about what is going on.

Since November of 1990, Philip Savage was treating my nephew who was then paralyzed due to a terrible accident. I was utterly upset and revolted when I read the ignominious, slandering organized press campaign.

I can attest to the extraordinary kindness and proficiency of his collaborators and that they fulfilled with perfect efficiency their role of "interface" between me and Philip Savage. As I claimed vehemently to the press (since I knew Philip Savage much better than they did), I also can testify that he was constantly refusing the money that I was each time insisting to send him for his interventions.

For all that, I wish to send him once more my total gratefulness and to grant him all my faith and confidence.

What will be the outcome of this terrible machination? Will Philip Savage someday be permitted to come back in his country for him to help all the people, like me, who need him and who have total faith in his Healing-Gift's Powers.

I was always told that the case of my dear Bernard was very important to Philip Savage who, due to the fact that he had definitely been condemned to death by the official medicine, was spending all his time and all his strength on his behalf.
