

PROJECT IMAGO

ACCELERATING HUMAN EVOLUTION

Humanity devolved from higher realms of knowledge and consciousness espoused by Egyptian, Mayan, Vedic, Celtic and other ancient civilizations. These cultures recognized the divinity and interconnectedness of all things, and were highly advanced in the areas of cosmic science, mathematics and spiritual development.

The world is now suffering, largely because individuals and nations view themselves as separate from each other, from nature, and from the Divine. This has brought People and the Planet to the brink of disaster.

In order to survive, we must re-discover who we are, and return to a higher “unity consciousness.” This cannot happen quickly enough with current tools and teachings. Mother Earth is rapidly being depleted and destroyed, and a quantum evolutionary leap is needed to heal the damage we have caused. We must find a way to quickly fast-track back to higher levels of consciousness and realize our fullest potential, so we as a people and a planet can survive.

Project IMAGO offers the only known solution to make this rapid ascension and acceleration of human evolution possible. Just as the chrysalis serves as the caterpillar’s vehicle of transformation to a butterfly, so, too will the Ark of IMAGO serve as a vehicle of transformation for humans.

After less than an hour inside these specially-designed pyramids, humans will emerge as awakened, perfected beings, returned to their original status and blueprint of fully human. These awakened beings will have all the knowledge necessary to bring our planet back to divine order where future humanity may survive and flourish, on duty, as bio-Pretorian guard it was designed to be.

The principles of IMAGO are strongly rooted in science, mathematics and history. Evidence has shown that ancient Egyptian and Mayan pyramids, built to exact specifications, created powerful energy vortexes. These allowed initiates to tap into the quantum or “zero-point” energy field, which has been shown to exist by modern physics.

In that realm of connection to the “higher power”, initiates were able to access infinite wisdom and ascend to higher states of consciousness and awareness. Through harmonic resonance, they were able to experience physical, mental and spiritual changes. Thus, the pyramids served as initiation or ascension chambers, complementing the teachings of the ancient Mystery Schools.

Today, Dr. Philip Savage holds the scientific blueprint for a much more advanced form of ascension chamber. He has the key to help humanity return to higher realms from whence we have devolved.

IMAGO is the only solution that we know of for evolving human consciousness and performance, literally overnight. It must be implemented quickly, before it is too late. Contact us if you would like to help manifest this blessing for Humanity and Mother Earth. +1 760 415 4550
