

IMAGO: Quantum Biocybernetic Evolution

The Most Amazing Cosmic Project in All Human History

IMAGO is the evolutionary leap to humanity's higher consciousness, long overdue... transforming people, reconciling man and nature, raising human consciousness quickly. IMAGO "Transmutational Pyramids" can be constructed and secured in 6 months and then built all over the planet.

As a scientist and paleontologist, Philip Savage's greatest and most ambitious project is designed to bring Man from our extremely limited capabilities, to perfect completion, our full potential, with ALL the powers, senses, and abilities we are originally designed to be, that is, IMAGO.

Forty thousand years ago, our immediate ancestors, Cro-Magnon, had a better convoluted and more active brain, of 2.2 litres, not unlike a killer whale, or a dolphin. Today it is only 1.4 litres, a dramatic deterioration in such a short time. Now try to imagine a humanity of a couple of million years ago, which has, controversially, nothing at all to do with the Ape. Because we have devolved for millions of years due to our vulnerability to the forces of chaos, those forces of destruction, we are all larvae compared to our own superhuman potential. Thus, there is an evolutionary leap that's long overdue, which has also been blocked for millions of years by those destructive forces (evil).

The advanced biocybernetic Arks of IMAGO are unique, specifically designed "transmutational pyramids" within which is a sphere made of a rare alloy with a special liquid inside. Through thermal imagery, Dr. Savage is capable to connect with and process the people that are within the sphere. Upon leaving the sphere, a half hour later, he guarantees people will be transformed to complete humans, having been "fast-tracked" to where they already should be, fully re-empowered, reset and re-associated to their true purpose and meaning on the planet.

Currently we are not able to use our brains at more than ten percent. Through the IMAGO project, we can do far better than taking our brains to our logical maximum of one hundred percent use. We can go back to true humanity, where there is no separation between the mind, the soul, the body, every living being, everything in the universe, the Earth and God.

We have forgotten our Unity, our Oneness. We have been lobotomised from our senses, from one another. This can be re-established: Philip is able to pass us the key, which we can then pass to others; he is ready to delegate, because time is now so short for our own and our earth's survival. First, he needs to give people effective proof, QUICKLY, hence the global fire burn tests that prove, scientifically, the actual existence of a higher power. Now, we can build the first IMAGO prototype.
