

THIERRY GWIGOUREL

Since I have learned of the extradition case against Philip Savage by the French government, I feel it is incumbent upon me, as my duty, to warn you of the dangers that he will be subjected to in the terrible event that the American Justice would comply with the French demands.

I have known Mr. Savage for many years due to his involvement in the defense of our Celtic cause, as well as in the defense of all European minorities, and particularly due to his struggle within the Breton autonomist movement. I have personally witnessed and even participated in each of the baptisms of his children in accordance with the rituals of our ancient Celtic religion.

As a member of the Gorsedd of Armorican Brittany to which his Majesty, the Prince of Wales, also belongs, I solemnly testify that Mr. Philip Savage is being persecuted purely for political reasons.

Since the French revolution of 1789, all successive French governments only worsened their centralist totalitarianism. Since then, the ongoing French persecutions never ceased, from the physical elimination (genocide) of the Vendéans who refused to give up their Faith and their Identity to the firing squad of the illegal Communist courts of 1945 which killed or imprisoned thousands of Breton patriots deprived of all legal and civil rights due to revolting and preposterous trumped-up charges.

Along with Greece and Rumania, France is the last totalitarian country in Europe with regard to her minority populations. France has refused to sign the "European agreement on linguistic minorities" and has always fanatically persecuted her national minorities by denying even their very existence.

France makes it illegal to speak our language and denies us any political rights, even while all other European countries are valuing more and more federalism.

I want you to be really convinced that due to his outspoken free-speech and his great courage, Mr. Savage was considered a true danger by such a "Jacobinist," totalitarian and clearly tyrannical country. They want to neutralize him, since, for our nation, he is the ultimate keeper and defender of an immemorial Clan of Sacred Healers of our ancient Celtic Religion. Just as the Roman conquerors were murdering our "Druids" and destroying our holy forests, likewise he is being persecuted by their French offspring.

I know the vile contempt demonstrated by France toward all human rights, and although she signed in 1948 the "Universal Declaration of the Rights of Man," France keeps torturing Breton patriots, Basque patriots and Corsican patriots in the current prisons of the "French Revolution." Therefore, if peradventure, the American Justice would gruesomely deport Mr. Philip Savage to France, I could not hide my terrible concern.

For all that, I beg you to do everything you can to rescue such a courageous man and an honorable man from the "injustice system" of French tyranny.
